Tesla Model 3 Project

total time for the project:
24hr

| planning and code studying | → | creating a base layout in html | → | editing and styling in css | → | result review and function check | → | corrections and comparison | → | submit |

planning the correct approach and figuring out how every part is built using the inspect option creating the basic html and css code for the site and making sure to include all the components

2hr

2hr

figuring out the correct styling used and replicating it

4hr

checking the result page and making sure everything works as intended

6hr

comparing the final result to the original and correcting any mistakes found by going back to the code

6hr

submitting the work

4hr